International students comprise a significant portion of the Smith MBA population, representing nearly 30 countries! International students should utilize International Student & Scholar Services, which is run by the University of Maryland, for resources and requirements for living in the United States. Please read the information below specifically for international students.

International Student Information

International Student Orientation

International Student & Scholar Services Office (ISSS)

English Skills Resources

International Student Handbook

Source URL: https://networth.rsmith.umd.edu/welcome-ft-mba/international-student-resources